RECORD CLUB NIGHT

FOR ARCANUM MEMBERS Fourteen Tables of Whist Followed by a Chicken Pie Supper-The Prize Winners.

Everyone drew a prize who attended the club night at the Arcanum club Friday evening and partook of the excellent chicken pie supper, which topped off the record-breaking event of its kind. The attendance was very large and it proved the biggest club night the organization ever held and its success was the general topic of conversation throughout the evening.

There were fourteen tables of whist and the prizes were taken as follows:

Z. R. Robbins, a clock, for the score of 54; Dr. A. F. Howard, sterling silver cups, for a score of 50. There were over 100 at the supper served soon after 9.30, consisting of chicken pie, celery, mashed potatoes, finger rolls, ice cream, ginger ale, coffee and cigars. The affair was in charge of the entertainment committee: President W. B. Young F. W. Cary, Frank H. Smith, A. E. Story and Louis R. Forteous.

FUNERAL OF MAJOR LEARNED

Eulogy by Dr. Samuel H. W. Howe who Conducted the Services at Park Congregational Church-Large Attendance Including Several Delegations.

A prayer service over the remains of Major Bela Peck Learned at his late home, No. 180 Broadway, at 2.15 o'clock Friday afternoon. Only the immediate family was in attendance. As the funeral procession started up Broadway to Park Congregational church the bell of the church was tolled, continuing until the casket was taken into the church and placed before the pulpit. Following the service, the tolling was continued as the funeral party moved on to the cemetery, until it had tolled in all 73 times, one for each year of Major Learned's life.

Services at Church.

Rev. Dr. Samuel H. Howe, pastor of Park Congregational church, conducted a prayer service over the remains of Major Bela Peck Learned at his late home, No. 180 Broadway, at 2.15 o'clock Ferday afternoon. Only the immediate family was in attendance. As the funeral procession starance. As the funeral procession starance as the frequency of the church was tolled, continuing until the casket was taken into the church and placed before the pulpit. Following the service, the tolling was continued as the funeral party moved on to the cemetery, until it had tolled in all 73 times, one for each year of Major Learned's life.

Services at Church.

The public services at Park church were held at 2.39 o'clock, at which there was a very large attendance, including the members of Sedgwick post, ing been reserved for them, a delegation from the Norwich Board of Underwriters, and directors of the Norwich Savings society, while there were also a large number of the representative professional and business men of the city. Dr. Howe also conducted the public services and peld a most fitting in attempting to utter in few words what is in all our hearts today. I remind myself that there was no one more averse to formal or excessive eulogy, speaking as follows:

In attempting to utter in few words what is in all our hearts today. I remind myself that there was no one more averse to formal or excessive eulogy on occasions like this than was he of whom I am to speak. And yet 10 be wholly silent would be an injure the total part of the contractive more arised that has put us so something to a man who has taken worthly his man's chance to live; who has accepted the challenge of opportunity and filled out a full man's part; who has so lived his life and done his work as to level up the life about him to a higher plane. Every community has enough and to spare of the coher kind of life, that is almeas, part; who has so level up the life about him to a higher plane. Every community has enough and to spare of the coher kind of life, that is a Santon—Jordan.

A weedling took place at the Baptites of the Santon—Jordan. It is made to for each year of the santon of the strong of the santon of the santon of the strong of the santon of the strong of the santon of the san miliar for this long stretch of years.

But the story of his life is not told in this brief summary. Much of this might be told of other men, though it is much to be said of any man. But beyond this, Major Learned was a religious man. And in this statement he passes into a much smaller company. He inherited here again. It was not for nothing that his ancestors for generations had served God. This strangely gets into the blood and that would be a bold hand that would be a bold hand that would be a bold hand that would stop the current and interrupt the strain. This he did not do; so he put himself in midstream of the flow and went on with it and widened the stream. He had many interests and engagements, but the religious iffe was the gulf stream to him. I am not claiming for him or for any man that he was without fault, but I do say that his religion was the deepest thing about him. It pervaded his life. It held him by a caple's grip to fixed anchorages. The religious certifudes were settled for him. He never weare down before the hewest thought or the oldest heresy, He knew in whom he believed and that saves a man a lot of trouble. Such men do

COUNCIL FOR SETTLING SECOND CHURCH PASTOR Will Be Called for April 12th, to Be Followed by Installation Service. For the purpose of settling Rev. Herbert J. Wyckoff as pastor of the Herbert J. Wyckoff as paster of the Second Congregational church a council of the Congregational church so of this part of the state will be called for Tuesday. April 12, in the afterneon at the Second church, at which time the council will consider the newly chosen paster, and following their approval the installation service will take place in the evening. What details that can be arranged are being looked after by the committee named to have charge of the matter by the church.

INSURANCE ADJUSTED.

Max Gordon & Son Corporation Will Repair Burned Storehouse—Railroad Paint Shop to Come Down.

Most people have a mistaken idea about colds. When they "pick one up" they simply give up hope and make up their minds that they have a week or two of misery ahead of them.

This is all wrong; you can break up and get rid of a cold in 24 hours or less. THE SOONER YOU COMMENCE TREATMENT the sooner your cold will be gone. If you treat the cold seen after you know you have "caught it" and before it breaks out in its acute stage you may prevent its appearance altogether.

Paint Shop to Come Down.

The insurance has been adjusted on the storehouse of the Max Gordon & Son corporation and on Friday work was started making repairs to the building. The roof and sides will be put in proper condition and it is possible that later some further improvements will be made there by the corporation. Mr. Gordon stated that a fair settlement was secured and the work of taking out the bales of water-soaked and smoked rags is now under way. Some of them are being dried out, while it is necessary to carry some of them out upon the dump.

The adjustment of the insurance on the paint shop of the New Haven road has been made. The building will never be used again but will be torn down and quarters secured elsewhere for the tools and supplies kept ther.

XENS ENTERTAINED.

The Xens society was delightfully entertained Friday evening by Mrs. Joseph M. Burdick of West Main street. Mrs. Herbert Willey, president, called the meeting to order at 3 o'clock. It was voted to have an oyster chowder supper and a committee was appointed consisting of Well J. Koonz, John B. Oat, W. Smith Allen and Walter M. Cowan. Following the meeting, an enjoyable social time was spent. Solos by Miss Martion Parkinson added much to the evening's pleasure. Mrs. Burdick served lee cream and cake during the evening. A vote of thanks to Mrs. Burdick was heartily given by the society.

Miller's on Friday evening for the reception of the Monday dancing class, in which there were 22 members. The march in which the members took part was led in fine style by Reginald Ashbey and Helena Wulf. There were nine numbers on the programme, among which the French barn dance, with a number of Hungarian steps introduced, proved a decidedly pleasing number, while the Yankee Boy, with popular music, made another favorite.

There was a cotilion in addition to the regular programme, and the leaders of that were Emerson Jones and Marion palmer. As usual, this feature was particularly pleasing, while the entire programme was carried out by the young people in a manner which reflected not only their own skill, but the careful instruction of their teacher,

RADIANT HAIR

EVERY WOMAN CAN HAVE IT THESE MODERN DAYS

Nothing keeps a woman youthful more than close attention to the hair. Any woman whose hair is dull, faded or lusterless cannot be either beautiful or attractive.

Dull hair casts around its owner an environment of stupidness, while the woman with brilliant, lustrous and luxuriant hair, though she may be far inferior in intellect than her duil haired sister, carries off the honors because of her respiendent hair.

In Paris, where plain women know how to make and keep themselves beautiful, the great hair dressing called Parisian Sage is much in demand. And since the introduction of Par-isian Sage into America, over three years ago, society women in all the large cities have learned that the eas-less successes and surgest way to turn lest, quickest and surest way to turn lifeless, dull and unattractive hair into brilliant, lustrous and luxuriant hair is to use Parisian Sage.

Parisian Sage is sold by leading druggists in every town in America and by The Lee & Osgood Co., who guarantees it to cure dandruff, stop failing hair and itching scalp in two weeks or money back.

Fifty cents for a large bottle of Par-islan Sage. It is a most daintily per-fumed hair dressing and it is not sticky or greasy. The gifl with the Auburn hair is on every bottle.
